Family Law Lawyer Wanted

Kanuka Thuringer LLP is an established business law firm based in Regina, with a first class reputation for providing comprehensive advice to medium and high net worth individuals in the area of family law, one of our signature practice areas. We are seeking a lawyer to join our continually growing family law practice.

The successful candidate will preferably possess between four and six years of family law experience with an established firm, although all applications will be considered. Collaborative training is an asset, but not essential. We are looking for a lawyer with an interest in the academic aspects of family law, and a desire to provide clients with high quality advice and practical solutions.

Applications by email are encouraged, and all applications are welcomed. To apply, please forward your CV in confidence to:

1400 - 2500 Victoria Avenue
Regina, Saskatchewan S4P 3X2
